MTV Says:
Adam Levine, Sara Bareilles, Blake Shelton, Serena Williams and many more want Ellen DeGeneres to meet Megan Bartley & you should too!

GOLDEN, CO - My younger sister, Megan Bartley, was rushed to the Emergency Room on February 18 because she passed out while in Steamboat Springs, CO. She was admitted to the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) because she has a number of blood clots in her lungs.

Megan turned 18 on April 7 and I would like nothing more than to lift her spirits. I would like Ellen DeGeneres to meet Megan. Megan has not missed an episode of The Ellen Show since she first tuned in; she loves Ellen (as well as Ellen's fellow Cover Girl, Taylor Swift)!

These blood clots have caused complications that have interrupted Megan's life and ability to be a regular teenager. I am doing everything in my power to get Ellen to meet Megan. I am not the only one who wants to make this happen; some of Ellen's friends want to make this birthday wish come true too.

So far, Adam Levine, Sara Bareilles, Blake Shelton, Christina Milian, Robin Thicke, Serena Williams, Brody Jenner, Mike Posner, Chris Rene, Tahj Mowry, David Arquette, Shonda Rhimes, Jessica Capshaw, Kristin Chenoweth, Audrina Patridge, Spencer Pratt, Eli Young Band, Jay DeMarcus, Lee Brice, Octavia Spencer, Jennifer Love Hewitt, Kat Graham, Kym Douglas, Pia Toscano, Anne V, Michael Sorrentino, Deena Nicole Cortese, Julia Sheer, Brandi Chastain, Eppic, Jon Duckworth, Canaan Smith, Anna Trebunskaya, Jermaine Dye, Maggie Elizabeth Jones, Sophia Grace Brownlee, Dominic Brownlee, Slacker and Steve, 9NEWS Denver and many more want Ellen to meet my sister.

Megan doesn't know about my family's efforts to make this birthday wish come true. Although Megan doesn't know all the risks and complications that have stemmed from this scary event (which we think is best for now), she is trying her best to keep a positive attitude. Megan is very strong, but I can tell this health setback is getting her down.

As this is her last semester in high school, she is so saddened that she won't be able to completely participate in the program she is involved in at school. The program allows for a number of students to travel around the United States learning, volunteering and discovering in many places.

Megan is strong, caring, friendly and loyal. She deserves someone to lift her spirits, which would be to meet Ellen. Not only do Megan's friends and family want to make this happen for her, but celebrities and a number of friendly strangers too.
